Event Summary

Leadership is diverse and Leaders come from all backgrounds, disciplines, perspectives and experience. We need to support more art and design educators from underrepresented groups to achieve leadership roles. This seminar will explore traditional and evolving concepts of leadership within the context of art and design education and is designed to appeal to a wide range of art and design educators considering career progression, aspiring to leadership.

The seminar will cover:

- Concepts of leadership
- Inclusive leadership
- Values and attributes
- Leadership identities
- How to include students, student voice
- A voice at the leadership table
- Leading creativity/creatives
