Welcome to the Creative Parent Symposium - a FREE event for artistic parents and caregivers, seamlessly blending the joys and challenges of parenting with a passion for creativity, taking place at Deda in Derby. This inclusive platform invites you to immerse yourself in a day filled with inspiration, featuring talks, performances, and discussions uniquely designed for family involvement.

This event is supported by Deda and PiPA, and funded by Derby City Council and UoD.

What to expect

Insightful talks, engaging performances and interactive discussions that actively involve children. The symposium's family-friendly atmosphere diverges from conventional events, ensuring everyone feels welcome.

Featured Speaker

Lucy McCrudden (Dance Mama): Engage in thought-provoking discussions with Lucy McCrudden as she shares experiences and advice resonating with creative parents navigating the delicate balance between family life and artistic endeavours.

Networking

Connect with a supportive community of like-minded individuals who understand the unique challenges faced by creative parents. Gain practical advice on navigating the dual roles of parenting and pursuing artistic passions.

Why attend

This Symposium is your opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of how parenthood and creativity intersect. Discover practical strategies, connect with fellow professionals, and leave empowered to navigate the intricate dynamics of being a creative parent. Whether you're a visual artist, writer, dancer, or any other creative professional, this symposium is tailored to enrich your journey.

Full details of the event, including speaker details, will be emailed to participants nearer the date.
